

The Last Man Standing

Tour to West NSW

Lonnie Lee

Lonnie Lee is the last man standing on stage of the original Australian Rock'n'Roll Superstars who had the most number one hits and who were television's most popular performers.

This mini tour brings him back to the West!. One of his favourite places. In 1957 he brought Rockabilly to outback area with Frank Rose and his White Rose Orchestra and was a feature at the local dances. The April-May 2025 tour takes in Dubbo, Bathurst, Orange and Lithgow with his 90 minute amazing show which critics are raving about. It is unique and shows off the talent this man still has in abundance.

In the world history of popular music, there are very few stars who hit the top of the Hit Parade charts as much as Lonnie did. In the first days of Rock'n'Roll he was one of the founding fathers of our Australian Music Industry. His Blue Cats Rockabilly Band of 1957 was arguably the first Rockabilly band around playing the new music which was about to sweep the world.

In January 1956 Bill Haley brought Rock'n'Roll here for the first time and only 4 weeks later a young Lonnie, after winning the title of Australia's Elvis Presley, started his own rockin' combo, The Blue Cats. This was at the same time Johnny O'Keefe and Alan Dale started the first rock dances in Sydney. Since then the rest is history and this show takes the audience on a journey through his story and the story of Rock'n'Roll.

If you were around at this time, or just love the songs of the 50's and early 60's or just curious about what is this era everybody calls, 'The Good Times', you must not miss this show. The fact that after 60 + years of performing on the biggest stages across the world, Lonnie delivers those special moments still, his authentic style is testament to his love of his audiences and the songs, the ones you can't forget when you leave, or can't stop singing days after!

There is no voice like Lonnie's, no artist who puts his heart and soul into every song, with energy and passion. Sit and relax through the 'Good Times' era that will take you back to a softer time in life.

If you are only into country music, you must experience the star who spent years in Nashville, who brought his Nashville Country Music Show to Australia, making it the first pro country show to perform seasons in the major Sydney clubs. In Nashville he looked after many clubs including Webb Pierce's Rhinestone Cowboy Club and Jerry Reed's Nashville Palace, booking many of the Grand Ol' Opry stars.

He and his show are unique and this is your opportunity to experience an important piece of Australian music history. 90 minutes of free and easy feelings, foot tapping and feelgood.

If the venue has the facilities, the show will feature amazing video of the early days of Aussie Rock'n'Roll.

So, make it a date to see a true Legend, not a tribute or clone or a 'would be', but a true Legend.
